

THE FINAL DRAFT

BOOKS • WRITERS • PUBLISHERS

Meet the writers, publishers and storytellers shaping Nova Scotia's literary landscape, in a series celebrating the books, creative minds and stories that bring words to life.

The Final Draft explores the world of books and the people behind them. Through conversations with writers, publishers and other creative voices, the series celebrates literary talent, the craft of storytelling and the ideas that inspire new work. From the writing desk to the finished book, it offers an engaging look at the people and processes that shape Nova Scotia's literary community.
